III. WORKING OF REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Real estate means buying, selling, and renting of flats. It helps to increase economic growth of the country. Construction of new buildings, many civil engineers build new buildings and give it to a broker for sale or rent or post add on real estate websites where they think that could help them to sale of the flat more easily.

- Real estate agents, these agents are known as brokers mainly. These customers are link between customer and owner. These broker first identifies the customer’s requirement then show customer flat according to customer’s requirement. They play very helpful job that help to reduce customers tension, stress, energy that they would need to find a proper flat for customer itself. These agent do sale of all the four types of properties. These businesses works mainly on identity of person they are mainly of two types.

- Seller’s agent, this is an agent from the side of owner. This agent reduces the mental and physical stress of owner that would go by owner for sale of flat. They find customer using their professional contacts. They take care of the owner flat, maintain it well up to their best to get customers as early as possible for the flat. They maintain your expected price given by owner try to negotiate to the given value by owner.

- Buyer’s agent, this agent are from the side of customer these agents reduce immaterial and mental stress of customer to find flats that would go by customers to find flat. Buyer’s agents do a good job for customer that is finding a perfect flat for customer as per customer’s requirement. They also find areas that they can buy easily or that may be affordable for them and satisfy their glossary needs to.

IV. COMPUTER TECHNOLOGY IN REAL ESTATE

Technology has made a great change in many sectors also including real estate too. Now a days it becomes hard to handle a large number of customers at once but using a website it can be easily possible for the customer to view the property and review it and checkout all its surroundings at they need around their house. Using this computer technology many customers can easily buy our rent a property. The technology can have several benefits that may also include past and present conditions of property. That may make the customer stress free buy having enough detail about what the customer is purchasing so they could buy they property without any stress or tension. Presently in real estate 20 to 40% agents use computer in some way. There are many way that include computer technology such as 3d virtual tour. It is a virtual view of property that we will buy a 3d virtual tour shows us the property from all angels and gives us great experience. It needs to be booked first to get a feel of the buying property. Online review and rating, this method gives you information about the past activity and information about the property because before buying we should have enough information about the property and it is important too.

VI. ADVANTAGES OF REAL ESTATE BUSINESS OFFLINE.

➢ We are the employee and we are the boss first we need to have broker license. We can run our own business and gain all profit without diving the profit and time can be managed as we need. [8] There is no specific time limit we can work as we need.

➢ Earn higher income, there are many options for having a great further but many of them chose to be a broker to gain great income .[8]the broker takes all the profit.

➢ Better commission splits, when a agent has no flat in specified area then the agent contacts the other agent in that area when this flat is purchased then the profit is divided between these both broker .[8]

➢ Noteworthy profit, the main profit is that when we invest in low budget and value property and own it .when the market has the demand for the property the price automatically increases and gives us huge profit. These property investments may be risky as some times we may get profit and sometime we may get loss[8]

➢ Create an heirloom, there’s no retirement in this business .when the father is died the business can been take over by agents son.[9]

VII. DISADVANTAGES OF REAL ESTATE BUSINESS OFFLINE

➢ Involvement of big amount of money and time, huge amount of time and money gets wasted.[9]

➢ Well time management, the time should be well managed, if the time goes the profit would decrease.[9]

➢ Higher transaction cost, in these businesses we need higher investment but there’s no guarantee of invested money will get back it actually depends on the area around it.[9]

➢ Real estate mainly requires well management and maintains, real estate business works on proper schedule that may lead to loss of money and time.[9]

VIII. ADVANTAGES OF REAL ESTATE BUSINESS ONLINE

➢ Convince, it is more convince for the potential buyer to use or search on internet. It reduces their time and efforts that will go in finding a specific property. [15]

➢ Audience, it becomes easy to search a large number of option rather than going through pamphlets or ads. [15]

➢ Cost, purchasing online is the best method used to save money than going through process of brokers. [15]
Social media, it is very powerful weapon it social media is so strong of an agent then that agent can be more successful in online marketing. [15]

IX. DISADVANTAGES OF REAL ESTATE BUSINESS ONLINE

- Only basic information is displayed, there’s no the important information is displayed only basic information about real estate is given on the website. [15]
- Booking amount is not given back; the amount that is the token amount given that is not refunded some amount is taken then given back. [15]
- Third part defects and problems, the responsibilities like some problems related to construction or the quality standards are not mentioned in agreement of website they are not responsible for any disaster that may happen in further due to third party liabilities. [15]
- No details about the project approval or loans related to home, most of the buyers go to home loans. There are no details about it in the agreement.[15]

X. WHAT IS BEST OFFLINE THAT IS USING A REAL ESTATE AGENT OR ONLINE USING A WEBSITE?

- It mainly depends on the customer which would be best but the best is hiring a real estate agent is best because here theirs a person that we can trust instead of using website theirs no one to trust at all. The agent will show the customer all flats that fulfill the customers’ requirements. It could be possible on internet too but it would be virtual that will not give reality feel to customer so hiring a agent would be best.[2]

XI. A Review on Situation of Real Estate in India From 1980’s to 2018th

- It mainly depends on the customer which would be best but the best is hiring a real estate agent is best because here theirs a person that we can trust instead of using website theirs no one to trust at all. The agent will show the customer all flats that fulfill the customers’ requirements. It could be possible on internet too but it would be virtual that will not give reality feel to customer so hiring a agent would be best. [2]

XII. CONCLUSIONS

- After all the review it must be said that using an offline real estate agent would be beneficial to customers instead using an online may be beneficial but may not have many loses to the customers.
